Description:

We are making India's biggest commercial property center for Commercial Real Estate to change the scene of zones under 10,000sqft by enumerating each miniaturized scale advertise stock and in this way expansive covering the base of the market pyramid.

Commercial Real Estate is a dynamic industry, it can swerve in at any rate. Streamlining and combining the same is without a doubt like understanding advanced science. Yet, we have faith in turning the course and doing what is by all accounts a tough errand. We began in September 2007, to make a commercial land stage which can incorporate the physical and innovative world with the gel of research into it, making the result more important and savvy.

We have mixed the best of the genuine and virtual world, enhancing the online commercial land industry. By mixing this blend we are taking you off the paper there by expanding the proficiency, efficiency, viability and helping you to settle on choice speedy and agent.

While influencing, we to have considered practically every viewpoint that influences the choice of the commercial land club. Come and experience the distinction which separates us.
